PUMPKINS AND SQUASH

Sugar Pumpkin

This versatile pumpkin is a convenient size, beautiful color, and can be used for both decorating and cooking. Its dark, sweet flesh makes perfect pumpkin pies, and its smooth, lightly ribbed exterior is perfect for arts and crafts.

Cinderella Pumpkin

A unique French heirloom reminiscent of Cinderella's fairytale coach. Its thick, sweet flesh is excellent for cooking, and its unique shape provides for creative decorating and carving.

Fairytale Pumpkin - Musque De Provence

Originating in France, this classic pumpkin sports a deeply ribbed, smooth exterior. Its mottled colors of tan and green are ideal for decorating any home.

Blue Doll Pumpkin

The pumpkin has a blue colored rind and sweet, deep orange flesh. Blue Doll's flesh is good for pies, soups or canning.

Sunlight Pumpkin

Sunlight is a 4-8 lb. pie pumpkin with an eye catching yellow color and a strong, dark green stem. Sure to get the attention of someone looking for something different!

Cheese Pumpkin

Another baker's favorite this pumpkin's deep orange flesh makes succulent pies. This stunning pumpkin is also the longest lasting, providing endless fall color for your decorating needs.

Peanut Pumpkin

A picture is worth a thousand words in this case. Fun, eye-catching conversation pieces, peanut pumpkins work well as a center-piece or in an arrangement.

Turban Squash/Red Warty

Red-orange with green and white accents, this pumpkin has a nutty, sweet, deep orange flesh with a mealy texture. Great for pies.

Field Pumpkin

Thick skin, perfect for carving. Available in 36" graphic bins, sized from 20CT to 60CT.

Blue Hubbard Squash

Originating in New England, this blue-gray squash hides bright orange flesh within. The outer hue also makes for a great contrast in fall decorations. One of the longest lasting winter squashes, its color is a great addition to fall decor, and it's delicious in soups and other dishes.

Hubbard Squash - Green, Golden or Black

These tear-drop shaped squash are anything but ordinary. The Golden Hubbard, the larger of the two, is purely ornamental, sporting a deep orange exterior complemented by rustic white stripes. The Black Hubbard provides a deep black, heavily textured exterior, and is excellent for cooking.

Striped Cushaw - Orange or Green

This squash features a bulbous base with a curved neck. The smallest of the Cushaws, its white skin is decorated with prominent green or orange stripes. These attractive gourds will be the highlight of your autumn decorations. They're also great for cooking!
